

Family Fun in the Farmyard!

This versatile gameboard will allow your family to read and play together in a way that will strengthen the pre-reading skills of your young children.

Through book sharing and easy-to-do play activities, you will make sure that your child enters school ready to learn.

- For each Bee, read a book together. Suggestions can be found on the Michigan Reads Booklist or from your local librarian.
- For each Barn, play an easy to perform activity from the Michigan Reads Activity Booklet, "Play with Me."
- Parents, child care providers, and librarians may choose to provide small incentives or prizes for each graphic on the gameboard.
- Stickers, temporary tattoos, rubber stamps, high-fives, and hugs are all good motivation.
- Visit your local library for a large selection of books to share with your child.
- Visit www.michigan.gov/michiganreads

Reading to your children is the single most important thing you can do to ensure their future success as a reader.

Becoming a Nation of Readers: Report of the Commission of Reading.